The Great Northfield Rummage Raid for Charity APRIL 30–MAY 2, 2010

Fact Sheet

5th Bridge invites you to participate in a spring service project that builds the community, engages lots of people of all ages, incorporates the values of volunteerism and philanthropy, and has broad benefits for all. Participate in: Goods for Good, The Great Northfield Rummage Raid for Charity.

Anyone can get in on the fun! This is a great service and fundraising opportunity for individuals and families, neighborhoods or groups of friends, employee groups, churches, non-profit organizations or clubs, school groups or sports teams, circles of service, etc...

Getting started...you decide:

- Rummage sale or refreshment stand
- Friday and Saturday sale or Saturday only sale
- Hours you will be open (range is 7 a.m.–5 p.m.)
- What good and worthy cause will benefit from your sale (organizations can benefit themselves)
- What percentage of the sales will be donated (minimum of 50%)

How 5th Bridge will help you:

- Promote the event locally and regionally
- Provide a toolkit (tips, signs, etc.)
- Develop a site map
- Help with the disposal of leftovers (marketing curbside free stuff after the sale and arranging a special pick up by the Epilepsy Foundation)
- Plan a celebration event and secure a sponsor if necessary

Note: To help 5th Bridge offset the out-of-pocket expenses, we are requesting a donation of five percent or $25 from each participating site.
